Paramount Blues History

In the early 1900's Grafton was home to Paramount Blues record company. Today, Grafton has a plaza, Paramount Plaza to recognize those influential Blues artists. The plaza is in the shape of a grand piano with the walk of fame on the keys. The Paramount Plaza is the end of the Walking Tour which starts on the corner of Falls Road and Green Bay Road where the old chair company stood on the Milwaukee River.

Stop in the Chamber or USS Memorial Grafton Public Library for a Paramount Walking Tour guide!
